COMMENTS ON STATEMENTS OF REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

Dear Sir:

In the Office Action mailed on November 1, 2004, the Examiner included a Statement of Reasons for Allowance on page 4 of the action. The Applicants express appreciation for indicating the allowability of the present application.

The Applicants note the Examiner's reasons for allowance, but further comment that the art of record, alone and in combination, fails to show, teach or suggest the entirety of each combination of steps and/or structure recited by each of the allowed claims of the present invention.

The Applicants respectfully submit that the reasons for allowance are only warranted in instances in which the record of the prosecution as a whole does not make clear his or her reasons for allowing a claim or claims. In the present case, however, the Applicants believe that the specification and claims of record do make the reasons for allowance clear.

Further, Applicants respectfully note that this statement is a paraphrase that includes elements of the allowed claims of the application. Therefore, these reasons for allowance are not limiting with respect to each and every allowed claim of the application. In this regard, Applicants respectfully submit that each claim of the application should be construed in view of the elements claimed and not limited in scope to the specific elements referenced in the Examiner's Statement of Reasons for Allowance. Therefore, the Applicants submit that the statement by the Examiner is unwarranted and request the Examiner to withdraw the reasons for allowance from the present case.

Respectfully Submitted,

February 16, 2005
